

grip of the shadow pdf

In the UK, Australia and most parts of Europe, grips are not involved in lighting. In the "British System", adopted throughout Europe and the British Commonwealth (excluding Canada), a grip is solely responsible for camera mounting and support.. The term "grip" is from the early era of the circus. From there it was used in vaudeville and then in today's film sound stages and sets.

Brushless Generators: Among the most common because of their inexpensive construction, brushless generators have the least reliable voltage control. Brushless generators can't react quickly to changing loads, either producing low power (a brownout) or high power. Fluctuations of this nature will cause voltage sensitive equipment like HMI lights to shut off, or will damage sensitive electronics.
