to Greeks the gospel appears foolishness (1 Cor 1.23). It is no different today. The culture around us may not be identical to that of the ancient world, though it is not much different, but still people consider the gospel to be foolishness. The danger therefore is that we become ashamed of the gospel.

"I am not Ashamed" - Calvary Community Church of Tampa

At the outset, we may wonder why Paul says, "I am not ashamed of the gospel." It is a figure of speech called litotes, where through understatement the affirmative is expressed by the negative of the contrary. For example, if you say, "he's not a bad athlete," you mean, "he's a pretty good athlete."
