Remembering Billy Graham - April | Christianity Today

Gospel originally meant the Christian message itself, but in the 2nd century it came to be used for the books in which the message was set out. The four canonical gospels – Matthew, Mark, Luke and John – were written between AD 70 and 100, and are the main source of information on the life of Jesus. All four are anonymous (the modern names were added in the 2nd century), and it is almost ...
